

The Sweet Life...

A Personal Note from Cherie:

"It is my heart's desire to bring Jesus to those who don't know Him. I don't want to just introduce you to Him; I want you to know Him, to really know that God of this entire universe cares about every single detail regarding you. He desires to get close to you, not only spiritually, but also emotionally. It is my mission to prove to you that we serve a God who is tangible, not just some vast Spirit that floats around in the heavenlies; but actually a living, breathing God.

I have experienced this tangibility personally, during some of the most difficult times in my life. I have learned first-hand that He is a God with such a heart of compassion for His children that He cries when you are crying. Although you can't see Him, He does wrap His loving arms around you when you are lonely and hurting. I've had some of the most amazing experiences in my life while actually being in the presence of God. When you tap into this tangible part of God, there is nothing in life greater.

I love that I serve a God that heals the deepest wounds of the heart. The part that you've closed off from the rest of the world...Only Jesus can fill the void left from broken relationships and ruined dreams. He can fill the darkest caverns with the light from His love. There's no person on this earth that could ever be what Jesus is to me. It is my sincere desire that my life will always be a reflection of the love and admiration I feel for the One who saved me.

I have such a sincere heart for those of you who are broken and hurting, especially those who are single and lonely. I would love the opportunity to come to your church and share with you my testimony of how God made Himself tangible to me. He answered my prayers, and if He could do this for me, He can do the same for you."
